Present for you a few hints on how to enjoy life in the Canadian Rockies — what to wear — what to do.

Each social director has a pleasant task — to make a special welcome for you. Make yourself known to her so we can all help entertain you.

The spacious public rooms and gracious dining rooms invite lovely clothes. If you wish, dress up for dining and dancing, especially on Saturday evenings.

For daytime comfort casual clothes are always acceptable — but ladies are requested not to wear shorts, slacks or halters in the dining rooms.

Gentlemen are requested to wear coats at all meals, and for dinner and dancing, coats with ties are "a must."

For outdoor activities such as hiking or cycling wear stout-soled shoes, and be sure to carry a weather-proof jacket or cosy coat for changeable temperature.

Golf — On the Banff Springs championship golf course and the putting greens gentlemen are asked to wear shirts and socks. Ladies are requested to wear skirts.

Swimming — Sterilized bathing suits may be rented at each hotel pool. Convenient lockers and dressing rooms make changing in your bedroom unnecessary. If you do change in your own room, please wear a bathrobe between room and pool.

Riding — Even if you haven't room to pack your riding clothes, don't miss the Trail Ride. At Chateau Lake Louise, you can outfit yourself at the Housekeeper's office; at Banff enquire at the Information Desk.

Tennis — For Banff Springs Hotel guests we suggest rubber soled shoes for safety and standard white tennis clothes for comfort. Gentlemen — "please keep your shirt on"!

Fishing — Wear your favourite rig, but be sure to carry a warm jacket. Fishing tackle as well as boats can be rented from the Guide at Banff Springs Hotel.

Bus Tours — Sun glasses are kind to your eyes in the clear mountain air. Hats or kerchiefs are a protection when riding in clear-topped sight-seeing busses.

Photography — Films — colour, and black and white, are available in the hotel photography shops. There, too, you will get answers to technical questions.
